

A Way Forward conversation at WBLUMC

Would you like a chance to have conversation about the Way Forward and the decision of the upcoming UM General Conference on issues related to same-sex marriage and LGBTQ clergy? Join us for two Listening Times with the pastors. The first will be on Sunday, Feb. 17, at 10:10 am. The second, to be held after the General Conference session (Feb. 23-26 in St. Louis), will be on Sunday, March 3, at 10:10 am. Regardless of the outcome, the United Methodist Church will continue to worship, serve, and reach out to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. These times for conversation give us an opportunity to look to the future together.

Pastoral letter from the bishops

Bishop David A. Bard, President of the North Central College of Bishops, shares a pastoral letter regarding the special called session of the General Conference in St. Louis on Feb. 23-26.

Dear Friends in Christ in the North Central Jurisdiction,

We, the bishops of the North Central Jurisdiction, greet you in the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit. Together we all stand on the edge of the special called session of General Conference in St. Louis in February. We are grateful that you have been praying with us in the months and days leading up to this significant gathering of the people called United Methodist, and we remain grateful for your continuing prayers.

During the past months we each have written and shared about this General Conference and the work of the Commission on a Way Forward. We have traveled throughout our areas teaching and listening, responding to your questions, sharing information and perspectives, and standing with you in this time of uncertainty.

As we approach this General Conference we invite you to trust that God's Spirit will be at work. The God of Jesus Christ is a God at work "making all things new" (Revelation 21:5), and often in surprising ways. "The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone born of the Spirit" (John 3:8). Pray that fresh winds of God's Spirit will be at work and trust that God will answer this prayer.

Know that whatever decisions the General Conference makes, the ministry to which we are called in our churches, making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world, will continue. The day after General Conference there will still be hungry people needing food, those mired in poverty needing help, addicted people needing freedom, frayed relationships needing mending, broken lives needing healing, lost lives needing saving, injustices needing to be righted, and this work of God in Jesus Christ will still call to each of us and to our churches. If the decisions of General Conference lead to changing structures for engaging this ministry we commit ourselves to working with you to make grace-filled responses.

Finally, know that the entire Council of Bishops takes seriously the demands of presiding at General Conference. Bishops have undergone additional preparation so that we are better equipped to preside with the grace and acumen needed to help the General Conference do its work well.

As we approach General Conference we find ourselves in Epiphany, a season rooted in the story of magi who follow a star to find Jesus and when they do "they were overwhelmed with joy" (Matthew 2:10). May we each continue to see light that draws us closer to Jesus, and fills us with joy, so that we might share this joy with the world.

Grace and Peace,

Bishop David Alan Bard

WORDS FOR REFLECTION

"The practice of paying attention is as simple as looking twice at people and things you might just as easily ignore. To see takes time, like having a friend takes time."

~ Barbara Brown Taylor

"Reverence is a specific attitude toward something that is precious and valuable, toward someone who is superior. It is a salute of the soul, an awareness of value without enjoyment of that value or seeking any personal advantage from it.

There is a unique kind of transparency about things and events. The world is seen through, and no veil can conceal God completely. So the pious man is ever alert to see behind the appearance of things a trace of the divine, and thus his attitude toward life is one of expectant reverence."

~ Abraham Joshua Heschel

What slows us down?

What gives us hope?

What makes us think?

What invites us to wonder?

What makes us change?

May we discover it as we open our hearts to love.

SCRIPTURE

Exodus 3:1-12

Reader: Evelyn Ferris

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, “I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up.” When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, “Moses, Moses!” And he said, “Here I am.” Then he said, “Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.” He said further, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God.

Then the Lord said, “I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.”

But Moses said to God, “Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?” He said, “I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain.”

May we know that our ordinary, everyday words and gestures carry the potential for great good, for sowing seeds of compassion, and for living in the ways of God.

Choral Scholars Spotlight

Meet Meagan Lynn Seubert, soprano

Meagan Lynn Seubert is originally from Wisconsin. She first fell in love with singing at age 6 when she was cast in her first-ever musical, Pirates of Penzance. She participated in her local community theater throughout high school and college, playing such roles as Tracy Turnblad (Hairspray), Serena Katz (Fame) and Frenchy (Grease).

Meagan earned her Bachelor's degree in Vocal Performance from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire in 2012, then a graduate degree in Opera Performance from Oklahoma City University, playing the roles of Blanche de la Force in Francis Poulenc's Dialogues of the Carmelites and Emily Webb in Ned Rorem's Our Town while there.

After completing her education, Meagan continued to gain experience by participating in Oklahoma City's chapter of Opera On Tap, which included the premiere of Baby No Eat by local OKC composer David Broyles during the 10 Minute Opera Festival in 2018. An ideal artist, Meagan is a frequent recitalist and has earned a number of awards, including the Encouragement Award at the Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions-Wisconsin District in 2011 and Second Place in the Texoma Region Edward Baird Singer of the Year competition in 2014. She continues to pursue her passion throughout the Twin Cities area, which includes singing in the WBLUMC CANCEL CHOIR.

Organ notes

For a year now, worship at WBLUMC has been supported by our new digital electronic organ, a Rodgers Infinity 361. We chose to install it as soon as possible, with the goal of adding actual organ pipes to the electronic organ when possible. In response to the generous giving of our congregation, we were able to purchase and install the new organ, with some funds left to apply to the second phase, installation of two or more ranks of pipes.

Clearly, we would love to add the pipes, but our organ committee feels we have a fine organ and that the considerable additional funds needed to complete phase two are too much to ask our congregation to raise. We've decided not to pursue phase two and to release the unused funds for other priorities.

We feel that unused funds entrusted to us as gifts to the organ fund would appropriately be used to support the traditional worship and its music program. Our proposal is to use these funds to support the choral scholars program of the chancel choir. Again, we are humbled and grateful for the generous donations from our congregation. Anyone who has questions or concerns should feel free to contact the committee chair, Curt Keller, at cdkeller@usfamily.net.
